

ACM Spring Live @ Guildford

ACM Spring Live is a showcase performance of all level 4 students' final assessments for their 406 module. Tilly Welford reports.

This assessment was a great opportunity to present their original inspired pieces of music based on a film, book or novel from the last 20 years and full of creative interpretations from movies such as UP, Gladiator and Cocaine Bear.

With a full afternoon of performances from 10 diverse groups, I was blown away by the amount of talent and the variety of looks and feels from each group.

Group 9, brought 'UP' to life through their heartfelt performance, blowing balloons up to have on stage. Each group brought their uniqueness to the table and I was not disappointed at all, I never knew what was to come next!
