

ACM Sounds @ Boilerroom, Guildford

What a crazy night! Tilly Welford ventures into Guildford's lively music venue, The Boilerroom, to watch five talented creative diploma bands from ACM fight it out for a space to perform at this year's Guilfest festival.

With Skunkworm, ColdJuly, Skweegie, Crumpet and Avenue battling it out for a space, the evening was packed with a range of ages maxing out the venue space with 200+ people in attendance. The bands were connected with everyone in the venue and this was such an intimate, personal experience.

At the end of the night, the tension rose as we awaited the results of what band would be playing at this year's Guilfest..... AVENUE had only gone and done it. But that wasn't all, CRUMPET was also given an opportunity with an extra slot that was just announced, meaning there were two winners of this fantastic opportunity.

I couldn't be happier for these bands and everyone that was involved in the event, they brought real stage presence, bringing to life the audience during each performance, by creating moshpits and 'Skunkworm' crowd surfing with their peers. It was a brilliant evening celebrating live music. I cannot wait to experience Avenue and Crumpet again as am working as a head steward this year at Guilfest at the end of June.

I am also running music events at The Electric Theatre Guildford. We are called Electrical Nights- go and check us out and I hope to see you at a gig soon.
